

SEEK & FIND IN THE MUSEUM

Go to the first room:

In this room, find 3 objects from the collections, beginning with the letter "S".

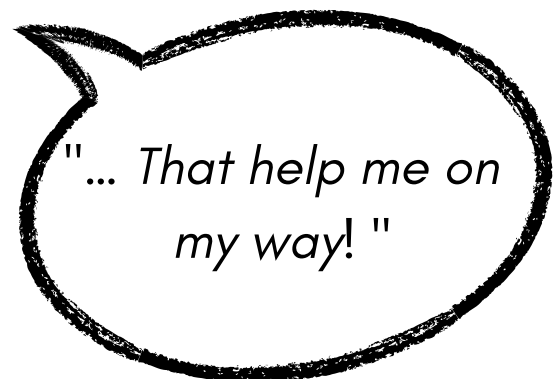

Find this prehistoric design!

Enter the corridor:

Look for an engraving:

Look in the next room:

If you mix sky blue and yellow sand,
which colour do you get?

Hint: it's the same as prehistoric jewels.

Find this detail from a domesticated animal of the late Neolithic period.

Before going upstairs:

Where is this detail,
representing an important
object from Prehistoric times,
that archaeologists discovered in prestigious tombs, or in sacred places?

"What an adventure !This "Seek and Find" is a real archaeologists work. It's time to take a little break : head to coloring and disguises in the children's area."

Continue the visit in the next room:

Which weapons did prehistoric fighters use?

A _ _ _ W
A _ E

S _ _ _ R
D _ _ _ _ R

In the last room:

Find a piece of a Gaul warrior's kit.

Hint: it rhymes with "restored" and "award".

Find this figurine, found in a Carnac villa, from the Roman Period.

Look for the paw prints from Roman times.

Hint: What was the dog doing up there?

Thank you dear
archaeologist!

It's time to discover other prehistoric treasures in Carnac.

See you soon for new adventures!
